About the book: Over the years to develop a system of case taking that Dinesh intended to be, ageless, timeless, beyond any personality and more importantly Human Centric, he develops his own Art of case taking (Case Witnessing Process) that helps to reach the deepest core of the patient with a relative ease. A Wander with a Little Wonder: Child-Centric Case Witnessing explores the efficacy of the process in treating children. The entire process is completely scientific and reproducible. The first half of the book, Talk the talk, discusses key ideas and concepts and examines the homeopaths role as a catalyst in case witnessing. The second half, Walk the Talk, presents fascinating case examples. Dr. Chauhans scientific approach is applicable not only to children; its universality will be discussed in his forthcoming books A Journey of the Case Witnessing Process and A Journey after the Simillimum.

The entire effort behind this book is to provide A to Z of the Case witnessing Process (including various techniques that help unearth the difficult cases) that is specialized for each individual child (Hence-Child-Centric) and which is scientific, easy to follow and reproducible by all.

Contents: (From the first half- "Talk the Talk") (The second half –"Walk the Talk"- provides illustrative cases.)

- The Child: The Purest Form of Energy.
- Child Energy: A Unique Pattern; Child Disease Energy: A Unique Altered Pattern
- Journey into Witnessing the Altered Pattern in a Child: Prerequisites
- Listening: The Essence of all Techniques; Witnessing: The Mother of all Techniques
- The Case Witnessing Process: A Child-Centric Approach

This chapter come as a cutting edge as it provides path breaking concept of Passive (step one), Active (step two) and Active-Active (step three) Case Witnessing Process. A to Z of the Case Witnessing Process starting from its Introduction, Importance, Aims and objectives, Application, Pointers for stepping ahead from step one to step two to step three, Questions to ask at each steps, Possible obstructions one might face and the appropriate techniques such as Denial, Projection, Dissociation, Internal witnessing, etc to tackle such obstructions, WHICH technique to use WHEN are explained with case examples. This entire process is completely scientific and reproducible.

- Fear: A Window into the Inner Pattern of a Child
- Dreams: Royal Roads into the Child's Subconscious
- Unfolding the Child's Altered Pattern through Art
- Sense in Non-Sense through Internal Witnessing.
- The Womb Connection: This final chapter features the exploration of the vital core of a child through mother's history during pregnancy. The concept laid in this chapter challenges the existing concept of the mother's state getting transferred to the child, proves it wrong and explores the new possibility.

“Homeopathy follows natural laws, and gradually Dinesh is unveiling them for us. He is an ardent teacher and a thorough prescriber. In this book we can wander with him through his world of homeopathic wonders.” - Jenni Tree

“This book is a treasure and a guide for homeopaths and even lay readers. Dr. Dinesh Chauhan explores the realms of subconscious and the inner experience of the child. The children’s expressions of their experience and perception, commented on by Dr. Chauhan, give the reader an experience of subtle awareness and she or he will emerge from reading this book with a sense of having returned to themselves and their own inerrant purity, freedom and integral awareness. While editing Dr. Chauhan’s case studies, I experienced that my own ability to hear the patient’s core issue in my own case witnessing had greatly increased. Due to my intense concentration on the cases I gained a sense of Dr. Chauhan’s scientific intuition and I observed that my own case witnessing abilities were naturally enhanced. I am confident that this book will help practitioners to expand their capacity to more insightfully understand their clients.”
